Sister Shivani's Background

Shivani Verma was born in Pune on 31 May 1972. She had a love for science and was a good student. After school life, she chose to study software engineering at 'Pune University'. During this time, her mother was in contact with a local RajYoga center of Brahma Kumaris. After college, she got married to Vishal Verma with whom she started a software business. Before the end of college, however, Shivani was attending their local BK centre and was connected to Brahma Kumaris. After receiving the message of God, she chose to live with complete celibacy with her husband but did not break the marriage. This is exactly what sister teaches on awakening series.

Journey with BKGSU

Seeing the positive difference in the behavior and personality of her mother, Shivani decided to take the 7 days course at a BK centre and then started visiting there once or twice a week. Sister Shivani then learned the practice of RajYoga meditation, during which she felt a connection with God. Gradually she realised that indeed God directly is teaching here. She used the knowledge of Science to understand how God, being incorporeal plays his role in the world through a medium. Knowing this, she also joined the mission to bring the new world (golden age).

Going Into Details

Shivani Verma was a university student till 1994 and then she served as a lecturer at Bhartiya Vidhyapeeth college for 3 years in Pune. During this period, her mother was a regular student at Brahma Kumaris. Shivani witnessed a remarkable change in her mother's nature. She became very calm, sweet, and emotionally strong. This inspired Shivani to visit the nearby BK centre. When reached, she was told about the self as a Soul (a spiritual being). The elder Sister of that centre explained about God like this: "The Supreme Soul is known to us as God. He is our most lovable spiritual father. We all are his children. When would God come? Of course, when the world is at its lowest stage, the father of world has to come to uplift the entire humanity and re-establish the true dharma (religion)." Shivani was convinced about the self as a soul but had difficulty in accepting that God indeed has come and is giving the knowledge (as Murli, which is studied at Brahma Kumaris)
