This is to notify all the users of our main website: www.brahma-kumaris.com aka www.bkgsu.com that this website is a non-official website of the Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Godly Spiritual University (BKIVV), ran by the Shiv Baba Services team. This website is aimed to give daily sustenance to Baba's children (via our 'Online Services', 'Resources' sections) and give accurate information about the organisation and its purpose to the seekers (via our ABOUT and WISDOM section)

Declaration from Site creator

We do not claim the website www.brahma-kumaris.com or www.bkgsu.com to be an 'official' website from BK organisation. Instead, our purpose is to spread God's message by all means possible, while also presenting the organisation related information to the public and thereby, glorifying the name of BK organisation. It is with this elevated purpose that we the team of "Shiv Baba Service Initiative" have dedicated our day and night in creating and managing the website, thereby making the website more and more useful for the users. By May 2021, this was the MOST USED BK website of all.

The money required to run this website (and all its apps and internal services) is also paid by website's creator (Anand Samrat).

Apart from the BKGSU main site, the “Shiv Baba Service team” is behind creating and running many other websites, mobile apps, YouTube channel and SoundCloud channel, and more... A full list of services can be found on this page:
