

BKGSU website Notice from Admin

This is to notify all the users of our main website: www.brahma-kumaris.com aka www.bkgsu.com that this website is a non-official website created and maintained by a team of a few Godly students at the Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Godly Spiritual University (BKIVV). This “One Website for Everything” is to give daily sustenance to Baba’s children (via our ‘Online Services’ & ‘Resources’ sections) and give accurate information about the organisation and its purpose to the seekers (via our ABOUT and WISDOM section)

➔ We do not claim this website to be ‘official’. Through this website, we have glorified the name of “Brahma Kumaris” organisation as well as given God’s message, and daily sustenance to thousands and lakhs of souls by now. Through our QnA Forum and Samadhan initiative thousands of souls have found help and guidance for their problems.

➔ Our purpose is to spread God’s message by all means possible AND to give proper sustenance to BK souls who are already in Gyan. It is with this elevated purpose that we the team of “Shiv Baba Service Initiative” have dedicated our day and night in making the website more and more useful. By May 2021, this was the MOST USED BK website of all.

➔ The money required to run the main website (and all its apps and internal services) is also paid by website's creator & manager (Samrat) from England, UK.

➔ Apart from the BKGSU main site, the “Shiv Baba Service team” is behind creating and running many other websites, mobile apps, YouTube & SoundCloud channels, and more... A full list of services is found on this page:

Purpose of this Notice

We need your blessings so that we can overcome the hurdles coming on the path of one of Shiv Baba's most important internet services. So we request you to send your thoughts and blessings to this website.

Connection with Mt Abu

BK Karuna bhai (head of media) at Mt Abu is well-aware of this website and some other services which the SBS team is doing. I have personally talked with Karuna bhai many times since 2016 when we started. In June 2021, I talked with Sister Jayanti (UK), head of Europe zone of “Brahma Kumaris”.

Both Sister Jayanti & Karuna bhai has recognised the quality of service and amount of time and hard work after this website. It is the IT department people who are to be convinced on this. Since they are attacking the well-earned reputation of this site.

Hence this notice is to make everything clear legally.

Manager, The Shiv Baba Services Initiative
